Date: November 8, 2000

STEUBENVILLE, OH—Emmaus Road Publishing has released the second book of its biblically based Catholic for a Reason series: Catholic for a Reason II: Scripture and the Mystery of the Mother of God.

In this book, nine prominent Catholic authors, including noted Scripture scholar Scott Hahn and others like Jeff Cavins, Tim Gray, Curtis Martin, and Kimberly Hahn, examine the biblical basis for the Church's teaching on Mary.

Catholic for a Reason II examines misconceptions about Catholic teaching on Mary and solidly defends them in light of Scripture and Church teaching. It addresses other topics such as why the Catholic Church teaches that Mary is the Mother of God who was immaculately conceived. Other chapters examine why she remained always a virgin and was assumed body and soul into heaven. Insightful chapters focus on the Rosary and Mary's relationship to the Church.

Catholic for a Reason II: Scripture and the Mystery of the Mother of God, 198 pages, is available at bookstores across the country. It may also be ordered directly from Emmaus Road Publishing for $14.95 plus shipping and handling by calling (800) 398-5470.

Emmaus Road Publishing is the publishing arm of Catholics United for the Faith. It is dedicated to publishing Bible studies, apologetics, and inspirational works for the average Catholic. Its most popular books include Catholic for a Reason: Scripture and the Family of God, edited by Scott Hahn and Leon J. Suprenant, Jr., and Courageous Love: A Bible Study on Holiness for Women, by Stacy Mitch.
