STEUBENVILLE, OH—Need a spiritual workout? Boys to Men: The Transforming Power of Virtue, by Tim Gray and Curtis Martin, is a Bible study designed specifically for men who want to build their spiritual strength. Each challenging lesson combines rich scriptural teaching with centuries of Christian wisdom to train today's men for the virtuous life. With thought-provoking questions at the end of each chapter, this book is ideal for individual or group study.

This Bible study is intended for the growing number of men who are taking seriously their call to Christian discipleship. Steve Wood, founder of St. Joseph's Covenant Keepers, a leading Catholic men's apostolate, says that "every father needs a few essential books in his father's 'tool box.' [Boys to Men] is one of them."

Co-author Tim Gray is assistant professor of Scripture and catechetics at the Notre Dame Graduate School of Christendom College in Front Royal and Alexandria, VA. He holds a master of theological studies degree in Scripture from Duke University and a master's degree in theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio.

Curtis Martin is the founding president of the Fellowship of Catholic University Students, a dynamic college campus evangelization and leadership training program. He received his bachelor's degree in communications from Louisiana State University and his master's degree in theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville.

Boys to Men: The Transforming Power of Virtue, 120 pages, is available at Christian bookstores across the country, and may be ordered directly from Emmaus Road Publishing for $9.95 plus shipping and handling by calling (800) 398-5470, by logging onto www.emmausroad.org, or visiting your local Catholic bookstore.

Emmaus Road Publishing, a division of Catholics United for the Faith, is dedicated to publishing Catholic titles for the lay reader. Its most popular books include Catholic a Reason: Scripture and the Mystery of the Family of God, edited by Scott Hahn and Leon Suprenant, and Mission of the Messiah, by Tim Gray.
