The latest in the “Come and See” series explores the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke

“Whether you are discovering the Bible for the first time or renewing an old relationship, this particular series is an indispensable guide for the Catholic who wishes to know more about Scripture.”

—Paul Zedek, Director of Religious Education
St. Helen’s Parish, Florida

January 21, 2005, STEUBENVILLE, OH—Drawing insights from biblical archeology and the writings of the early Church Fathers, “Come and See” The Synoptics, compares parallel passages from the three Synoptic Gospels to construct a vivid picture of the life and mission of Jesus Christ.

“Come and See” Catholic Bible Study series presents the rich heritage of the Catholic Faith in clear and simple language. With its practical direction for leaders, easy-to-use workbook format, and appealing design, this Bible study series is ideal for use in the classroom, home study, or parish catechesis.

Monsignor Jan Majernik, from Slovakia, holds a doctorate in Sacred Scripture from the Franciscan School of Biblical Studies in Jerusalem and has studied at Hebrew University and the Biblicum. He has been a spiritual director for pilgrims to the Holy Land for 20 years.

Father Joseph Ponessa holds a doctorate in Sacred Scripture from the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome (the Biblicum), which requires mastery of nine languages. He serves as a pastor in Eastern Montana and teaches the Come and See Bible Study in his three parishes and prison ministry.

Laurie Watson Manhardt earned a Ph.D. in education from the University of Michigan. She is a Catholic wife and mother and teaches Bible study in her home and parish of St. Helen in Vero Beach, Florida.

Now available in Catholic bookstores nationwide.
