Ralph Martin draws upon the teaching of seven acknowledged “Spiritual Doctors” of the Church to present an in-depth study of the journey to God.

“This book is wonderful. I love it . . . this practical manual for the Christian life, interesting and easy to read, should become a spiritual classic.”

—Father Robert Faricy, S. J.

“I just finished The Fulfillment of All Desire. FABULOUS. Many of the books of these saints you explained are sitting on my bookshelf, unread or partially read. Somehow, they became too difficult to read through. However, your book has made the saints and the mystics understandable and their goal of union with God seem somehow reachable for the average, stumbling, sinful, human being. This is a very lay-person friendly book and someone is already standing in line to get it next.” (A woman from New Jersey)

“I brought your book with me on retreat and it helped me reach a deeper level of repentance, conversion and union with God. It was deeply moving and healing for me. This book has helped expand my heart and was used powerfully by God. My heart swells in gratitude and awe. This is an inestimable gift to the Church. It is one of a kind and will serve the Church greatly into the future. The Holy Spirit has helped you write a book that truly mediates God’s love through the lives and writings of the saints. I am grateful.” (A priest from Pennsylvania)

“I’ve listened to your audio albums on the teachings of these saints and have liked them very much, but the book, for me, is far more powerful. I’ve followed your work for many years and have probably read everything you’ve written and I think this book is the best thing you’ve ever done. I couldn’t just read, but had to stop and pray and reflect, and be inspired to a deeper union with God. Once in a while a book comes along that is a “must read.” This book is it. It is truly a spiritual treasure.” (A layman from British Columbia)

“Having listened so carefully to the audio albums on the saints—and having rejoiced at their teaching—I am really delighted to have a compendium of these teachings readily available in book form and usable for prayer times. I plan to give a number of copies as gifts at Christmas. Thank you.” (A priest in Rome)

“This book really speaks to my heart.” (A woman from Michigan)

“This book will really help us to respond to Mary’s repeated invitations to prayer, and more prayer.” (A woman from Illinois)

“You are the first person I have ever emailed in my life! Reading your book has led me to do so, with the help of my husband. I have ordered a case of books from the publisher to give to my friends. Thank you.” (A woman in Florida)
